A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, the St. Albans Bank, a corporation, duly incorporated by the Legislature of the State of Vermont, located and doing business at St. Albans, in the county of Franklin, has made application to me, requesting me to issue a proclamation designating some day for the termination of the existence of said corporation;

And whereas, it has been made to appear to me that two-thirds of the legal votes of the stockholders of said corporation were given in favor of said application;

Now, therefore, I, Paul Dillingham, Governor of the State of Vermont, in conformity with said application, and the provisions of section eighty-six and eighty-seven of chapter eighty-nine of the General Statutes of Vermont, do hereby issue my proclamation, and declare that on the twenty-fifth day of March, A. D. 1868, the said corporation shall cease to exist as fully and with the same effect as if said charter expired by the limitation thereof.

In witness whereof, I have hereto signed my name and caused the seal of the State of Vermont to be hereunto affixed, in Executive Chambers at Waterbury, this 23rd day of September, A. D. 1867, and of the independence of the United States the 91st.

PAUL DILLINGHAM.

By the Governor, Wm. P. DILLINGHAM, Sec'y of Civil and Military Affairs.

There is a power to make each hour As sweet as heaven designed it; Nor need we roam to bring it home, Though far there be that find it! We seek too high for things close by, And lose what nature found us; For life hath here no charm so dear, As home and friends around us.

North American Review.

AN EXTRAORDINARY FAMILY OF ROBBERS.—An Indiana correspondent of a Cincinnati paper gives the following account of a notorious family of robbers, who have troubled the vicinity of Seymour, Indiana, for the past few years. The father is William Reno, who was regarded as an honest man until recently, although he was very eccentric, and applications had been made to have a guardian placed over him, on the ground of insanity. His wife obtained a divorce from him when the application for a guardian was refused, and since that time the boys have lived some of the time with her, and some of the time with the father. The account says:

There are five boys—Frank, John, Sim, Clint and Bill. Of these Clint is considered strictly honest and honorable; Frank and John are known to be safe-blowers, &c., and Sim and Bill, though nothing is positively known against them, they are looked upon with suspicion. The first robbery of note they committed was "blowing" a safe at Azalia, Bartholomew county, Indiana, by which they got $10,000.—Frank left the country and went to Canada. It was said, when a cousin of his turned State's evidence against him. He is now under bonds to appear before the United States Court at Indianapolis, for robbing the post office in Jonesville, in the same county, but is in no danger of conviction, as the principal witness against him, Grant Williams, was assassinated a short distance from his own house, in Jackson county, about three years ago.

Frank, while supposed to be in Canada, would occasionally visit the States and rob some safe that was left unguarded, and so expert was he, that he was never detected. In these operations John was supposed to have a hand.—There were numerous robberies committed in and near Seymour in 1864-5, in which, it is supposed John bore a conspicuous part, though there were no arrests, as the people seemed to be afraid of the destruction of their property if anything was done to ferret out the thieves.

In October, 1866, the express car was robbed, near Seymour, of about $45,000, though $30,000 in a safe, was recovered. John Reno and Frank Sparks were arrested as principals, and Sim, Reno as an accomplice, but were soon bailed out. About five or six months afterward Frank and John robbed the safe of one of the counties in the northern part of the State, and secured about $15,000.—Frank was tried and acquitted of the charge, but his lawyer said, after the trial, that he and John were guilty. Last December John robbed a safe in Gallatin, Missouri, and is now serving out a sentence of twenty-five years in the Missouri Penitentiary for his crime. The citizens of Seymour believe that Frank Reno was at the head of the late robbery of the express company's car, on the Jeffersonville Railroad, near Seymour, when the robbers obtained $96,000.
